

Catherine Jennings

Associate Director
Dublin

t: +353 1 232 2303

e: catherine.jennings@matheson.com

Expertise

Catherine Jennings is an associate director of the Financial Administration Services and Compliance team at Matheson.

Catherine has worked with Matheson for over 8 years and has gained extensive experience advising on all aspects of a company secretarial nature to a wide range of financial institutions carrying on business in Ireland or through Irish vehicles.

As part of the Financial Administration Services and Compliance team, Catherine provides a comprehensive and quality company secretarial, company law compliance, and corporate governance best practice service and is responsible for the maintenance of the statutory records for many of the leading Irish and international financial institutions, such as investment funds, both UCITS and non-UCITS, aircraft leasing companies, insurance companies and structured finance vehicles, ensuring such companies are compliant with their public filing obligations, Catherine provides such companies with ongoing advice and support in respect of all matters of a company secretarial nature during specific corporate transactions

Catherine provides advice on board meeting best practices, regularly co-ordinates, attends and records the minutes at quarterly board meetings of various regulated and non-regulated entities within the financial services sector in Ireland.

Catherine is an associate member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators.

Education

Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators (Professional Qualification)
Trinity College Dublin (Bachelor of Business, Economic and Social Studies)

Related Practice Areas

Financial Administration Services and Compliance
