Expertise

John Ryan is chair of the Tax Department in Matheson and prior to this was Head of Matheson US offices from 2011 until earlier this year. John practises corporate tax focusing principally on advising international corporations doing business in and from Ireland. His areas of expertise include advising on corporate acquisitions, mergers, reorganisations, inward investment tax incentives, workouts and cross-border restructurings. He has represented numerous US and other foreign corporations in establishing their Irish operations, and is standing advisor to a number of Irish based multinationals.

John is a frequent speaker on Irish tax matters and is also the Irish correspondent for the Irish Chapter of the BNA Tax Management Portfolio series entitled "Business Operations in Ireland," a U.S. publication with global circulation.

John is routinely counted among the top Irish and European tax advisers in prestigious publications such as Who's Who Legal, Chambers Global and Chambers Europe.
